O'NEILL, Lisa is eligible to stand for election as a resident of the Shire of Merredin.

Having grown up in the Wheatbelt, my connection with this region is strong. Having made Merredin my home for the last ten years, I am now eager to serve as your candidate in the upcoming local extraordinary council elections. My commitment to our community is evident through my active involvement in various local groups and my professional engagements with two key Wheatbelt Community Organisations.

Every day, I experience the challenges and aspirations unique to Merredin's residents, providing me with a solid understanding of our community's needs. My dedication to the Wheatbelt region is demonstrated through my proactive contributions to numerous community groups, where I advocate for positive development. I firmly believe that the growth of our community hinges on active engagement, collaborative efforts, and innovative ideas.

I am enthusiastically looking forward to contributing towards making Merredin a better place to live and work.
