Enrolment status

MANNING, Renee is eligible to stand for election as a resident of the Shire of Merredin.

I am a long term Merredin resident, current Shire of Merredin Councillor, mother of two, wife of a hard working small businessman and a B grade netballer. I currently work at the Wheatbelt Development Commission, which has a strategic focus on regional economic development.

My interest in being on Council is to ensure the Shire does what it can to create the environment for businesses to thrive and for residents to actively contribute to their community. I want to see the Shire look to the future and understand the challenges its residents, businesses and the sub-region are facing. It is important we are working with our neighbouring Shires to look at fit for purpose solutions to some of our most critical challenges such as housing, service delivery and climate change.

There is also opportunity knocking driven by global net zero ambition. It is vital the Shire is prepared for whatever investment may come. I am keen to play a continuing role in helping our Shire prepare for the future.
