Background

Council endorsed the 2022-23 Budget in a Special meeting of Council on 9 August 2022. This included the proposed dates for rates full payment and instalments. (CM Ref# 82978).

The dates were as follows:

Full payment or 1 st Instalment due date	23 September 2022
2 nd Instalment due date	25 November 2022
3 rd Instalment due date	27 January 2023
4 th Instalment due date	31 March 2023

Comment

Due to the recently announced Queen's National Day of Mourning being observed on Thursday 22nd September, the Administration is proposing to formally move the due date for full payment/ first instalment of rates from Friday 23rd September to Friday 30th September.

A large number of rate payers in the Shire utilise the face-to-face method of payment, and it is believed that the closure of the Shire Offices on Thursday 22nd may be disruptive to a number of these rate payers. Allowing the extra week for payment will ensure that this option of payment is available to more rate payers.

The Shire will support the change of date with communications across all our available channels, and signage at the Shire Office to support the change.

Policy Implications

Nil

Statutory Implications

Division 5 and 6 of Part 6 of the Local Government Act 1995 refers to the setting of budgets and raising of rates and charges. The Local Government (Financial Management) Regulations 1996 details the form and content of the budget.

Risk Implications

If Council do not move the due date as requested, there is a risk that a number of rate payers may not meet the existing deadline, and should penalty interest be applied it may cause further legal issues.

Financial Implications

There are no known financial impacts associated with moving the due date back by the proposed week.
